

Instructions

Lacto-Densimeter

32120 & 32130

1. Fill a tube of the liquid that is going to be analyzed (milk).
2. Put the lacto-densimeter carefully into the liquid until it floats freely and vertically.
3. Spin it in the sample until all the bubbles around the neck go away.
4. Take the reading: water will bulge up the side.